SAM PHILLIPS BEATEN.

"Advance Guard wins!" "Advance Guard wins!" "Sam Phillips wins!" "Sam Phillips wins!" These are the shouts that rent the air as the third race was being run at Washington Park yesterday, and not one-fifth of the people that crowded the stand and lawn knew which of the two colts did win, so close were they together when they flashed under the wire.

Advance Guard and Sam Phillips met in a handicap at a mile and a sixteenth and Advance Guard had an advantage of two pounds in the weights, but this was offset by Sam Phillips, who had the premier jockey, Burns, up.

The possibility of seeing these two grand three-year-olds come together on such favorable terms proved a great drawing card, and as much real interest was taken in the event as there was in the Derby, and the race furnished a much more satisfactory contest. Both the colts are stanch local favorites, and when the pair came flying through the stretch head and head with jockeys Burns and Vittoe whipping and spurring for all they were worth the crowd fairly went frantic. Advance Guard was on the inside, and this handicapped his rider to some extent, it being hard for him to use his whip. But the game colt did not need any whipping to make him do his best, and, gaining inch by inch on his opponent, he managed to get up in the final stride in time to say, "there you are, judges."

Few, if any, in the crowd knew which colt had won, and for an instant quietness reigned, but when Advance Guard's number was hung out a mighty roar went up and for an instant the air was full of hats, canes and umbrellas. Even those who fancied Sam Phillips and backed him could not help applauding Advance Guard for his game showing. He was outrun in the first part of the race and had his own troubles working his way through on the far turn. This he stood like a true thoroughbred and at the head of the stretch was in second place, then Burns on Sam Phillips roughed him and crowded Vittoe as near to the inside as he dared. But the game son of Great Tom—Nellie Van was not to be denied, and amid a roar of excitement, won the most sensational race so far of the local season, and there has been some fine racing up to date.

Jockey Caywood never was in better form than he is now and his fine ride on Rinaldo II. in the fourth event was one of the features of the afternoon. Rinaldo II. belongs to William Oliver and that popular owner thought that the gelding would win and told all of his friends, incidentally betting enough on him himself to win $1,400. Oliver is a liberal fellow when he wins and Caywood was promised a good stake should he win and the boy was certainly entitled to whatever he got. Rinaldo II. could not keep up in the first part of the race but when the leaders began to fade away he was there, and under a powerful ride came through the stretch like a flash, and, after a terrific struggle, gained the decision by a nose. Teucer was second a short head in front of Midwood, making it a very pretty finish.

Whenever Barney Schreiber wins the public is pleased, and consequently the handsome victory of Bannockburn in the initial event was a popular one. Ruiz, for the first time since he fell with Glonoin at Harlem, rode Bannockburn, and his cool, deliberate way of riding was commented upon on all sides. He seems to understand Bannockburn and has riding power behind that, so when he got ready he glided by the leaders, and at the finish was a full length in front of Zoroaster, who ran a cracking good race.

Jiminez at last dropped into a spot where he could win, and after being backed from 7 to 5 down to even money he "delivered the goods" readily.

J. H. Smith won a purse with The Bobby in the fifth race, and for once in his career as a jockey J. Miller rode a good race. The Bobby is not a speedy horse but he likes a route and Miller let him loaf along in the rear until the stretch was reached, then he brought him up with a rush on the outside, winning with ease.

John A. Morris made his field look cheap in the last race, winning in a romp by two lengths from Pope Leo and Onomastus.

Ed A. Tipton was a visitor at Washington Park yesterday. Mr. Tipton is on his way to New York, where he holds a big horse sale Tuesday, July 3. Mr. Tipton shipped about fifty horses in training from the Bitter Root Farm, property of Marcus Daly, to New York, and this high class lot goes with others under the hammer July 3.

OAKWOOD HANDICAP WEIGHTS.

Yesterday Secretary Howard made public the weights allotted the horses engaged in the Oakwood Handicap, which will be the star attraction at Washington Park next Saturday. Bannockburn has been assigned the distinction of being top-weight, a position his doughty deeds down east last year and at San Francisco last winter richly earned for him. From his 126 pounds imposed the weights are equitably graded down to The Lady In Blue and other lightweights, at 90 pounds. The Oakwood has always furnished a splendidly contested race of most interesting type, and it will do the same this year. The distance is 1 1-3 miles. The weights are as follows:

Bannockburn	126	Bangle	123
Han d'Or	122	Lieber Karl	120
Dr. Sheppard	120	Steamer	120

TO MEET MISS BENNETT.

Colonel William S. Barnes' crack filly, School for Scandal, has been brought from Cincinnati to Washington Park to meet her engagement in the Quickstep Stakes. She gave weight and a beating to T. C. McDowell's flyer, Monarka, at Newport, Tuesday, and of this race the Cincinnati Enquirer says:

"Tom McDowell's good filly Monarka, a filly which the Lexington turfman is said to consider as promising as was either her half sister, Spirituelle, or Rush at her age, was beaten at the Newport track, yesterday.

"Though beaten, however, the McDowell crack was not disgraced. It was, with perhaps the exception of Queen Dixon, the best of the misses which have shown up here this season, that took her measure. School for Scandal, the slashing daughter of Teuton and Flying Rumor, from the stable of W. S. Barnes, was obliged to put forth her very best efforts to nose out the half sister to Spirituelle, after a fierce drive the last quarter of a mile. Unfortunately the race could not be considered a true

Went to post at 2:39. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden; second easily. The first three had the race between them the entire way. Belle of Lexington showed the most speed and Richard J. could not get near her, but she was hard ridden at the end. Richard J. is improving. Heliobas and Brigadier fought it out for third money. Firearm ran a poor race and can do better.

Scratched—18416 Mark Cheek, 110; 18586 Survivor, 123; 18355 Queen of Song, 113; (18061) Co-burg, 105; 14582 Plucky, 105; 18680 Precursor, 105.

Winner—B. c. by Albert—Leda.

Went to post at 3:05. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Mayor Gilroy was much the best and showed plenty speed. Water Cure ran his race. Commander Miller also ran to the mark and is a consistent colt. Matchim showed speed but was tired at the finish. Wooster Boy ran well for six furlongs.

Scratched—18798 Radford, 110; 18796 Miller, 115.

Overweights—Water Cure, 1 pound.

Winner—Ch. g. by Morocco—Kisbarn.

Went to post at 3:40. At post 3 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second easily. Moor was lucky and showed the most early speed, but was tiring and stopping at the end and McCue had to ride him out to stall off Delmarch. The latter closed fast in the last quarter. Maximus ran a good race from where he got off. He and Tonicum were shut out at the start by Moor. Vouch tired after going a quarter.

Scratched—(18795) Gold Heels, 107; Baron Pepper, 106; (18676) Scurry, 105.

Winner—Br. f. by Kingston—Hypocrite.

Went to post at 4:10. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Admission outlasted the others and it was only a question as to whether she was fit. She showed all of her last year's speed and won easily. Procession, a pretty shifty colt, hung on gamely and stood a hard drive. Half Time ran an improved race. The others were stopped by the hot pace. Survivor got off running behind his field.

Scratched—18615 Vesuvian, 99.

Went to post at 4:40. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Dr. Catlett scored a lucky victory, as the race was run. He refused at the last jump, but Old Tank, his nearest opponent, did the same. Finnegan got Dr. Catlett going quickest, and clearing the jump, went on and won. Dave S., who went the course, would have won had he been closer Winner—Br. h. by Hayden Edwards—Bettie Blaise.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second whipped out; third eased up. Bannockburn received a good ride and showed a touch of his real form. He is a grand horse and was in a soft spot here, and the price against him was a royal one. Zoroaster had no excuses and is in his best form. He is a shifty gelding, but not in the same class with Bannockburn. Burns placed W. Overton in the early part of the journey and on the far turn appeared to have a winning chance, but in the run through the stretch he was out-sprinted. Red Pirate, far out-classed, made a good showing. Both Silver Garter and Flaunt tired in the stretch. Bannockburn, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Zoroaster, place, evens; show, out. W. Winner—B. c. by The Commoner—Bertie T.
Went to post at 3:00. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won kicked out; the next three were driving to the limit. Jiminez was a promising colt, and under an indifferent ride ran a good race. Rose became a trifle careless toward the end and in the last few strides had to kick Jiminez a few times to stall off The Brave's rush at the end. The Brave was outrun in the first part of the race, but in the last three furlongs made up a lot of ground and ran a smashing good race. Dangerline was off flying, well handled, and was lucky to be third. Miller rode a poor race on Battus, who was perhaps a trifle short and tired at the end. M. L. Rothschild is a fine looking colt, by Boundless, and will do to watch.

Overweights—The Brave, 11 pounds.

Winner—Ch. c. by Great Tom—Nellie Van.
Went to post at 3:30. Off at the first break to a perfect start. The first two were driving to the limit. It was a spectacular finish and it created a tremendous sensation. Advance Guard is a grand colt and ran a grand race. He was out-sprinted in the first part of the race but closed gradually on the leaders after passing the half-mile post and squeezing through a tight hole at the head of the stretch barely got up in time. He is as game as a pebble and outstayed Sam Phillips. The latter had no excuses. He was ridden to perfection and was simply not good enough to beat Advance Guard. Sam Phillips swerved a trifle under punishment at the head of the stretch and came near fouling Advance Guard. Brulare ran a good race and can win when placed right. The same can be said of Einstein. Nobleman showed a flash of speed early. Etta ran a bad race and is probably not over her fright caused by her recent fall.

Overweights—Brulare, 1 pound.
Advance Guard, place, 1 to 2. Sam Phillips, place, 1 to 2. Brulare, show, evens.

Winner—B. g. by Leonatus—Dahlia.
Went to post at 4:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. The first three finished closely bunched and were driving to the limit. Rinaldo II. was ridden in masterly fashion and came through the stretch with a tremendous rush, winning in the very last stride. Teucer ran a good, game race and, perhaps, should have won. Like Rinaldo II., Midwood came with a whirlwind rush through the stretch. There was a general changing of positions in the final furlong. Heigh Ho set a terrific pace and tired at the end, as did John Grigsby and The Pride. Graziella took the longest route, finishing on the extreme outside. The stewards sent Rinaldo II. back to the paddock after he had started to the post with orders for Caywood to wear spurs.

Rinaldo II., place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Teucer, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Midwood, show, 3 to 1. The Pride, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Graziella, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. g. by Inspector B—Pansy Blossom.
Went to post at 4:35. Off at the first break to an excellent start. Won easily; second and third were doing their best. The Bobby loafed all down the backstretch and never started to run until the half-mile post was passed, then he went to the leaders like a flash, and at the end was going away. Lake Mills is a good looking and is also a fairly good horse. He had all kinds of bad luck in the race, but stood it gamely. The Monk's race was below his mark. He had clear sailing all the way, with the exception of a trifle of interference at the three-eighths post, when he fell out of it, then through the stretch he came with a tremendous rush. Norford looked all over a winner at the head of the stretch, but he weakened under pressure at the end. Lady Elite showed speed in between posts, and seems to be becoming good. Watch her.

The Bobby, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Lake Mills, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. The Monk, place, 2 to 5; show, out.

Winner—Br. c. by Gallantry—Jetty.
Went to post at 5:05. Off at the first break to a good start. Won in a romp; second, third and fourth were doing their best. John A. Morris was the best and was never fully extended. Clay had a stout hold of his head all the way and the colt made his field look cheap. Pope Leo was right there all the way, and will be a hard horse to beat the next time he starts. Onomastus was well ridden and did his best. This horse will do better in the mud. Bergen improved a trifle on Innovator and rode a good race. Little Reggie had bad luck early and made up much ground in the final quarter. Iznik broke running and showed some speed, but could not carry it far.

John A. Morris, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Pope Leo, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Onomastus, place, 8 to 5; show, out.

Went to post at 2:33. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won ridden out; second handily. Troubadour was lucky, well handled and finished stoutly. Celeste d'Or ran a fairly good race, but tired at the end. Joe Gammage may have been best, as he got off poorly and had to run around the field and make up much ground. Koscio showed speed early, but quit in the stretch run. Clara M. and Sir Philip Sidney met with much interference.

Scratched—18831 Muskett, 107.

Tekla was bothered somewhat on the first turn and ran a good race, Terra Incognita did well. Parole d'Or should have been third. He was pinched off at the half mile post. Fox Bard got off none too well.
